“ Today the Donald Guseman Jr Family honor our beloved Uncle Alden, a strong, proud Irish man whose heart was full of music. Even at 90, he never stopped singing “Danny Boy,” and his voice always brought comfort, like a familiar hug we didn’t know we needed.

My husband’s favorite childhood memories were those simple rides in the truck with his pap and dad, heading to see Uncle Alden—moments filled with stories, warmth, and love that still live in his heart today.

One memory I’ll hold forever is from a family reunion, when my youngest son danced to the bagpipes. The joy on Uncle Alden’s face... it was pure and unforgettable. He clapped, laughed, and loved every second. That moment felt like a gift.

We will miss his strength, his laughter, his songs, and the way he made everyone feel like family. But in those memories—in the music and the love he shared—he will always stay with us.

“ Dear Jody and family:
I lost two brothers this week: Fred Fundy and your dad. He always addressed me as: "Brother Snyder", and I called him "Brother Guseman" and that's where the formality ended! From that point on, the remainder of our conversation was, who could come-up with the best humor! I'm going to miss being "his handyman" - as he often referred to me - but I always reminded him that he didn't know the "working end of a screwdriver" and that is why he called on me to perform odd jobs around his house!!,
I'll truly miss him.
Love you Brother, and rest in peace, until we meet again.
Your Brother,
Allen Snyder

“ Jody and Alf and family, My thoughts and prayers are with all who loved Al. I knew Al since the late 70s at the credit union. And I can still hear him singing at the Naomi Club during the Christmas season. He will now be singing from the heavens above. I will miss him.

“ Years ago, my Uncle Alden travelled many miles from PA to Maryland with his brother Glenn (my dad) to support him in a mission of mercy to a very troubled teen. I was that teen. They took that long and grueling drive during one of the worst snow storms of that year. His words of love and encouragement still ring in my ears and speak volumes to me of faith, love, and sacrifice. He faced many of his own valleys and heartaches as time moved on from there. A true soldier of Jesus Christ in my mind, forever, he shall be!
