

Anella B. Solan

January 16, 1920 - December 9, 2007

Anella B. Solan, 87, of Rostraver Township died Sunday, December 9, 2007, in Monongahela Valley Hospital. A daughter of the late Nick I. and Anna Chomosh Budnick, she was born in Monessen on January 16, 1920. Anella had resided in Rostraver since 1955, was an avid reader, and in the 1980s she volunteered her time to read novels over the radio for the visually-impaired through the Westmoreland County Blind Association. A nature lover who spent many hours walking the trails at Cedar Creek Park, she enjoyed tending to her flowers which were admired by all who passed by the house. She was a devoted wife and loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Survivors include her husband of 58 years, Andrew H. Solan, two daughters and sons-in-law, Elaine and G. Thomas Bair of Rostraver, and MonaLin Solan-DeMarco and Al DeMarco of Palm Harbor, FL, and one son and daughter-in-law, James A. and Ann Solan of Rostraver. She is also survived by two sisters, Blanche Bertram of Ruffsdale and Stella Costa of Charleroi; five grandchildren, Matthew V. Bair of Squirrel Hill, Emily E. Bair of West Mifflin, Tracy Calandra and husband Zackary of Cottonwood, AZ, Aaron D. Solan and wife Jolene of Charlotte, NC, and Nicholas Jon Solan of Washington, D.C., and five great-grandchildren: Morgan, Daniel, Meghan, Hope, and Nate. In addition to her parents, she was preceded by two brothers, Rudolph and Adam Budnick. Mrs. Solan's family is grateful for the exceptional and loving care she received from the staff at Monongahela Valley Hospital. There will be no public services. The Ferguson Funeral Home and Crematory, Inc., 700 Broad Ave, Belle Vernon, (724-929-5300), www.fergusonfuneralhomeandcrematory.com handled arrangements. If friends or family wish, memorial contributions may be made to the Rostraver Public Library.
