

Charles Radock

August 8, 1930 - January 27, 2023

Charles “Chuck” Radock, 92, a longtime resident of Wexford, passed away on Friday, January 27, 2023. A son of the late Nicholas and Pauline Radish Radock, he was born in Fairhope on August 8, 1930. A 1948 graduate of Marion High School, Chuck reached the rank of Staff Sergeant while serving in the Radar Maintenance section of the 765th AC&W Squadron of the United States Air Force from 1951 to 1955. After graduating from the Capitol Radio Engineering Institute in Washington, D.C., Chuck started his career as a television technician at WKBN in Youngstown where he met his wife of 58 years, Alice. He then joined his older brother, Joe, at KDKA-TV in Pittsburgh. After 28 years at KDKA, Chuck retired in 1995. Survivors include his wife, Alice Kelly Radock, and children James Radock (Donna), Lisa Bonifate (Bill Fucci), and Kathleen Radock (Amy Camp). He also leaves behind grandchildren Ben and Celia Radock, and Alexis, Anastasia, and April Bonifate. He was preceded in death by brothers George, Joseph, Michael, Richard, and Steve, and sisters Sophia Cutter and Paulette Radock. Chuck was a natural storyteller, sharing childhood tales riding his bike around the Mon Valley, a day trip with friends climbing Mt. Katahdin during his military days, and stories from his time at KDKA. Chuck continued to enjoy repairing electronic equipment of all types in his retirement. He was a tinkerer and a music fan, and was always willing to help out a family member. A follower of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Steelers, and Penguins (in good years and bad), he dabbled in home videos during his retirement, even creating claymation videos; most starring his handcrafted lead actors, Mort and Clay. Chuck's easy-going manner and spirit will be greatly missed. Friends will be received on Monday, January 30, 2023 from 2 to 4 P.M. and 7 to 9 P.M. in the Ferguson Funeral Home and Crematory, Inc., 700 Broad Avenue, Belle Vernon. 724-929-5300. www.FergusonFuneralHomeandCrematory.com. A funeral service will be held in the funeral home on Tuesday at 10 A.M. with Rev. Mary Kay Glunt officiating. Interment will follow in Belle Vernon Cemetery.
