November 29, 1937 - April 2, 2021

Charlotte M. Brown, 83, of Fayette City, went to be with her Lord and Savior on Friday, April 2, 2021 in UPMC Mercy Hospital. A daughter of the late John S. and Dorethea Rudolph Lindey, she was born on November 29, 1937 in Fayette City. A lifelong resident of Fayette City, she was a member of the Fayette City Alliance Church. Survivors include a daughter and son in-law, Joni and Daniel Powell of Perryopolis; a son and daughter in-law, Russell and Wendy Brown of Fayette City; three grandchildren, Jennifer Denitti of Perryopolis, Leigh Ann Smith of Newell, and Jessica Anne Brown of Pittsburgh; and two great-grandchildren, Lucas Denitti and Charlotte Smith. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Russell L. Brown in 2005 and two brothers, Louis Kenneth Lindey of Fayette City and John William Lindey of Delmont. Loved by family and friends, Charlotte was endeared to many she met through her work as a long-time cashier at Kroger supermarket, paramedic with Community Ambulance Service, staff in the office of House of Representatives member James Mandarino, running the Fayette City foodbank, Tax Collector for Fayette City borough, and various church ministries: teaching Sunday School and bible study classes, serving as deaconess, and many more. Her faith was strong, and she lived it throughout her life in both word and deed. We will miss her. “ When I issued the call for volunteers to organize the Washington Township-Fayette City Community Ambulance Service in the mid-1970s, Charlotte was among the very first to volunteer. And volunteer she did, working her way up to the rank of paramedic while serving hundreds of people in need over nearly two decades. "No" was not in her vocabulary, as evidenced by the many other contributions she unselfishly made to community, church and CAS over her lifetime. It's too bad that we don't have more individuals like Charlotte Brown, who made this a better place. May God bless her. Condolences. Joe Grata.

“ I cant remember when Charlotte and I weren't friends. We were the kind of friends that if we didn't see each other for years when we did meet again it was like yesterday. I guess like a comfortable pair of slippers. I remember when we were little "Before the teens" we would pick "Johnny Jump Ups" and "Lilies of the Valley" at the cemetery, make bouquets and go door to door selling them. When we reached our teens we made up our own language. We became quite good at it... no one understood "We thought we were all that and a bag of chips" Now my friend you have moved on and "We Will Meet Again up there".. In the meantime, I will miss you.. Your Friend Connie
