

Christopher Lee Coleman

April 6, 1985 - April 30, 2025

Christopher Lee Coleman, 40, of Belle Vernon, passed away on Wednesday, April 30, 2025. A son of Amelia (Coleman) and Donald M. DeWitt, who survive and reside in Belle Vernon, he was born on April 6, 1985 in Pittsburgh.

A resident of the Mon Valley most of his life, Chris spent 7 years in Grass Valley, CA and then Southside before returning back to Belle Vernon in 2011. Chris loved cooking for others. He was employed as a chef, working at many different restaurants over the years, his favorite being the Napa Prime Chophouse in Wexford. Chris loved the mountains, being outdoors and going fishing, but was also a gamer, having an extensive game collection as well as an extensive record collection. He was very protective of his family and enjoyed spending time with his nieces and nephews. Chris will be remembered for his goofy sense of humor and for being the sarcastic one in the family.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his siblings, Stephanie and Travis Leone of Fayette City, Adrienne Sawicki and her partner, Carley Summers of Morgantown, WV, Richard and Emily Sluk of Greensburg, and Austin and Hayley Sluk of Bentleyville, his stepparents, Roy and Melissa Sluk of West Newton; and his nieces and nephews, Gage, Caiden, Adelina, Dylan, Lena, Averi, and Hannah, also known as Uncle Chris' little meatball. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Joan and Gene Reis and his paternal grandmother, Elaine DeWitt.

Friends will be received on Monday from 4 to 6 P.M. in the Ferguson Funeral Home and Crematory, Inc., 700 Broad Avenue, Belle Vernon. 724-929-5300. www.FergusonFuneralHomeandCrematory.com. A memorial service will follow at 6:30 P.M. at the Christian Center Church's Fellowship Hall, 130 Charity Lane, Rostraver Twp. with Pastor Tim Burgan and Elder Travis Leone co-officiating.
