“Dave was the most interesting cousin my late husband, Scott Rankin, had. When we visited him I was mesmerized by him and his many talents. Dave flew out to Oklahoma to play bagpipes at Scott's funeral. His gift of bagpipe music was very special. After the funeral he played his bagpipes at the reflection pool at the site of the Murrah Building bombing. So touching. I will miss you, Dave. Thanks for the opportunity to know you.”

“I met David a few times at some events around Pittsburgh. David was a kind gentlemen, he had a fine sense of humor, and was very talented. I'm glad I got to know who he was. Characters like him don't come along often enough in a lifetime, but they are remembered forever.”

“*We were sorry to hear of the passing of David. We both graduated with David from RHS Class of 62. He was gracious to play the bagpipes at a few of our class reunions, most recently the 50th. We send our sincere sympathy and thoughts and prayers to the family.*Kenton and Madeline Nescot Colvin

“ I have several stories about David from forging machine parts on an anvil to waiting for a funeral procession in the freezing cold and trading stories at Flyers Club. I can summarize them all in one sentiment; He was a nice guy. May peace find your family and God rest your soul.

“ I lived in East Washington Boro for a number of years, and used to love to hear Dave coming up the street on Christmas Eve playing the bagpipes. I would walk out and chat with him for a minute, and he would be on his way. What a great memory this is for me. This Christmas Eve, he will walk the quiet, beautiful, snow covered streets of Heaven and all of our lost loved ones will enjoy his wonderful gift of music.
