“ I met Diane on April 12, 1969. George, Jr. and my son Tommy Canigiani were born on that day. We were roommates while in the hospital. We became good friends. And we were both surprised to be pregnant a second time together. And she had Danny and I had Nicole on February 8 and 9, 1973. Once more we were in the hospital together. Our children grew up together, went to the same school and graduated together. I thought the world of Diane. She was a good wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. I know she will be missed by George and his wife, and Danny's children. My deepest and most heartfelt sympathy to you all. Patty and Tom Canigiani and family
