“ I met you when you and two other buddies, I said what’s that your drinking. American honey and mtn dew. Became my favorite drink. You passed away in front of my parents house. I cut the grass, in your honor. You were right I did spend that lottery money too fast; had my father hold on to it. Rest in peace

“ I didn't know you Dom, but as I sit here the day of your burial I've thought about your family and life a good bit. It's amazing to see so many people come together to honor you. You truly must have been someone special. I'm so sad for your family and those who's lives have been left empty in your passing. It seems even though your life has been cut short and by far way too soon, that you crammed a whole lot of living into your time here on Earth. I really hope a better place exists and that you are there, free from earthly suffering. And to everyone you left behind, may they find comfort somehow. Such a sad tragedy.

“ I first met Dominic and his Mom, my good friend, Rose at Mon Valley Fitness Center in 1993. I worked in the nursery there and I had the pleasure of watching him while his Mom worked out. I have many memories of that sweet but ornery little curly haired baby/boy. He had eyes that could melt your heart I didn't see him often over the years but when I did see him nobody would have had to tell me that it was Dominic. I always recognized him by his beautiful brown eyes. My heart breaks for his family as they have to deal with learning to live their lives without him. May God comfort you in your time of sorrow. Love and hugs to you all, Sherry Trussa

“ Tom, Dolly, Ryan, and Anthony

I was very shocked and upset when I heard the tragic news about Dominic. He really was a great person and had become so successful and built a really nice life for himself. I always loved stopping at his house to see Harley, the love he had for his dog was unconditional! Also, the love for his family was unconditional. He always made me laugh and will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers will be with you all during this hard time. Find peace in knowing that Dominic was a wonderful man and although too short, lived a great life.

“ We will always be grateful for you being in our lives. You gained your wings without a question. We know this is not goodbye but one day we will see you again. We definitely have a wonderful angel looking down watching over us. We know you will be smiling and shaking your head and laughing at us as we may do stupid things from time to time. You have taught us so much. But most of all we know you will be there! Love and miss you Dom!

“ I remember when Dom and Seth became friends back in 1st grade and Dom would teach Seth how to wrestle in our basement! Then a few years later they would take their little motorcycles back behind Lowes and the slag dumps. They had that need to ride back even back then! So glad the boys became friends! We hope it helps in some small way to know that our family will be praying for you thru this very dark time.
