“ I am very, very sorry to hear of Don's passing. I have fond memories of Don and my brother Randy who was his close high school friend. Don would come over to the house and visit Randy many times. He and Patty were always kind to me, Randy's little sister.

“ Donald became a proud grandpa with the birth of his grandson, Carter Gotto. He was employed as a chemical lab technician at Hercules/Eastman Chemical plant in West Elizabeth, PA. He always dreamed of owning a hardware store. I gave him the nickname "Tool - Man Taylor" and "Inspector Gadget" because of his large collection of tools, nuts and bolts, and including his need to take things apart to see how they worked. I will miss him dearly. Love, his wife of 48 years.
