*“ This Woman Is My Mother. She was an Amazing lady who loved with her entire heart. Any one who knows her was blessed because she could make you laugh in a second. And she Hated being called Em or Francis. Sure way to get her attention. Daddy called her Francis a lot.. There isn't any more baking for the holidays or spending nights with you Mother. But one day I will see you again in Heaven. I Love and Miss you Mother
Your Daughter

“ I don't have many memories of my aunt. The few I have are the family gatherings at Grandmas Russell's House for Thanksgiving and Christmas when the Smith family would drive up and we had that small house filled with good times around the multiple tables. The. Russell clan sure could have fun together.

“ Aunt Emilie was a beautiful woman. She knew how to live, love, and laugh. I loved her giggle. I had lots of good times with her. She had a special way of saying "Hi Bambi", by the way Alice, you say it the same way. Im glad her pain is over, and we will see her again. Can you imagine that family reunion! I love you my dear Aunt, I miss you already.
