“ Melvin, we've had our many differences down thru the years but I have always admired you for your devotion to your beloved Estella.....and even though I have lost loved ones,the black cloud of loneliness hovers over you at this very minute and you wonder how your life will ever be the same; but Melvin, Estella was your everything and nothing can erase these memories from your mind. My sympathies, prayers, and thoughts go out to her family but Melvin you will be in my thoughts forever knowing how you cared for her and loved her to the end. Be strong my friend, and know that others share your sorrow.
