“ As historian for the Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri (KOM) league it was a pleasure to have spoken with Francis about his tenure with the Bartlesville, Oklahoma Oilers in 1947. Although his time there was brief it was a thrill for him to have played in the Pittsburgh Pirate organization that year. My condolences go out to the family in this time of loss.

“ Pap, I know you're in a better place & no longer in pain, but man, do we miss you. You were definitely the most wonderful Pap in the world, & I'm lucky to have had you in my life for so many years. You've always been there for me, & I know you'll continue to watch over me & the whole family. I can only hope to carry on with the poise, grace, & strength you always maintained in your life. Rest well, sweet Pap. You'll always be in my heart. I love you.
