

Geneva Patricia Saunders

September 27, 1925 - March 15, 2016

Geneva Patricia (Patsy) Saunders, 90, of Greensburg, formerly of Monessen and Star Junction, passed away on Tuesday, March 15, 2016 at St. Anne Home, in Greensburg, Pennsylvania. Geneva was born in St. Elmo, Illinois on September 25, 1925, the daughter of the late Gideon and Della Miller Wright. There she was raised, in part, by her aunts Nola Cox and Alta Miller. Following high school she moved to Chicago, Il, where she met her husband George Ward Saunders. They spent many years in Chicago raising their children, Gregory Saunders and Jeffery Saunders, before settling in Monessen, Pennsylvania. There she opened her heart and home to raise her granddaughter, Crystal Miller. Geneva was dearly loved and adored by her children, granddaughter, and her former daughter-in-law, Virginia Saunders, in whom she found a life long friend and champion. Geneva is survived by her two sons, Gregory Anthony Saunders of Youngstown, OH and Jeffery Lee Saunders of Dawson, Pa, and former daughter-in-law Virginia May Saunders of Belle Vernon, Pa. She is also survived by her granddaughter Crystal Lee Miller and husband Paul Miller of Greensburg, Pa, and four great-grandchildren Aaron Saunders, Nathan Hewitt, Logan Miller and Lauren Miller, who will always remember the special attention she showed them during the last years of her life. In addition to her husband and parents, Geneva was preceded in death by her daughter, Sharon Rebecca Saunders, and her brother, Eugene Wright. Geneva will be laid to rest at Maplewood Cemetery in St. Elmo, Illinois, where a private memorial ceremony will be held. There will be no public viewing or visitation. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Ferguson Funeral Home and Crematory.
