“ It is not often you are fortunate enough to meet someone who loves all the people he cares about without condition. Your generous spirit and playful personality have touched many and you always will be fondly remembered. Rip ..you will be missed

“ For my entire life, we have smiled just like that at each other. You were the kindest and happiest man that's ever loved me. You taught me that it's okay to have fun and try new things; to feel free from the expectations of others. You gave me my first guitar and taught me how to play "Smoke on the Water." I would turn up the Frank Sinatra CD, and we would just sing. You always would laugh at my jokes about the current news, the weather, our family...anything. We could just laugh. Thank you for giving me your lighthearted nature. I may call it "zen," but it's really a piece of you running through my veins. You were everything that I ever could have ever wished for a grandfather to be, and then some, and I'm going to miss you so much, Pappy.

Love you forever,

Your honey bunch

“ Very sorry for your loss, Rick. We sure had a good time when I worked with him at Thorofare. He was always a jokester. Golfed with him many times, seen you play football for Jeanette, great memories. He sure will be missed.
