“ I'm so sorry Tonda. I loved your Mom. She was such a wonderful person and good friend to my Mom. My parents loved getting together with them both. I remember them playing cards in the living room having so much fun and laughing. I treasure those memories.

“ Tonda, I'm so very sorry to hear of Aunt Iva's passing. I wish I could have been there for the funeral. She was such a lovely lady! My Mom always tells the story about Aunt Iva always wanting to wash our long hair! Lol So many good times going back and forth from our house to yours! And your mom always willing to add two more to the dinner table. Iva and Blaine, my Mom and Dad playing cards for many, many year! Such good friends and neighbors! She will be sadly missed. “ So sorry to hear of Iva's passing, she was an Angel to my Mother for years. She saw that my Mom got to the Doctor on many occasions. She was a great neighbor and friend of the the Metz brothers David, Bub and Eddie and we was thankful Iva was there when we couldn't be. Blaine was great man and now they are together in heaven. Condolences to the family and Tonda you are a great daughter who was there for her Mom. Katelyn, you was your Grandmothers sweetheart, was so proud of you!

“ So many warm and wonderful memories fill my heart when I think of my "other Mother". Such an ache with her loss. Tonda and Katelyn know you are in my thoughts. She is at peace now and with Dad. I can hear her now: "Blaine...."
Love you
