“ To my loving cousin, Jennah. How can we all go on from here? How can we enjoy another holiday without you? Your beautiful smile, your infectious laugh, your warm embrace as we enter and exit every family event. I miss all of these things already. To watch you grow up before my very eyes and accomplish so much in so little time is beyond impressive. In addition to, you finding the love of your life, Bryan. To watch someone love you the way you deserve is what some people can wait a lifetime for, but you had it. I know you will be worried about him, but your family has his back down here. As far as your parents, sister, and Lena are concerned, Cameron and I will do our best to be there for all of them. This tragedy will never be understood by any of us. I pray that you have peace in knowing that we are ALL fighting for justice. We will forever keep you in our memories and hearts. Rest peacefully my Angel. I love you...
