“ U were a truley amazing person who was so caring, patient, determined. As I only knew you for a short time u taught me a lot about about faith and dedication when beating and overcoming obstacles. All these qualities that you had and shared with will be never forgotten. I feel very lucky to have known you. I know that your presence here on earth will be greatly missed. I know that the lord has bigger plans for you. To the family you were awesome and words can't express how your dedication,love,faith impacted him. I'm sorry for your loss.
