

John Beeler

March 23, 2006

John W. 'Jack' Beeler, 86, of Fairhope died Monday, January 24, 2005 in his home. A son of the late Albert A., Sr. and Jennie Hopkins Beeler, he was born in Fairhope on September 20, 1918. He was a member of the Marion Presbyterian Church of Belle Vernon and had resided in Fairhope his entire life. Mr. Beeler retired in 1980 from the Allenport Plant of Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel Company and was a World War 2 veteran of the U.S. Air Force. Survivors include a daughter, Nancy Beeler, with whom he made his home, a sister, Anna Mae Crawford of Fairhope, a granddaughter, Danielle Larson, and husband, Michael, of Belle Vernon and 2 great-grandchildren, Alyssa and Dylan Larson. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Marthe M. Crozet Beeler on February 1, 1996 and a brother, Albert A. Beeler. Friends will be received from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 P.M. Tuesday in the Ferguson Funeral Home, Inc. and Cremation Service, a Golden Rule Member Firm, 724-929-5300, 700 Broad Avenue, Belle Vernon. Funeral services will be in the funeral home on Wednesday at 9:00 A.M. with Pastor Robert Prinkey officiating. Interment will follow in Mon Valley Memorial Park.