“ John was one of the most unique individuals anyone could ever meet. He was literally a fire alarm for fun, always willing to push that envelope just enough to get a laugh. I have so many fond memories of just hanging out with him, engaging in what I would call "stupid fun." From flipping baseball cards in grade school, to attending Penguin games, to watching Monty Python, to playing altered versions of hide & seek stretching from his backyard to the graveyard across the street; there were times we laughed so hard our sides would hurt. You will be sorely missed my friend. We all knew what we had with John and were beyond lucky to have him in our lives; the rest of the world missed out. My deepest and sincerest condolences to Bill, Anita, and their respective families. Rest in Peace JC Kid.
