“ Words can not express my deepest sympathys. I remember John carrying me home to my house on Fell street when I was just a little kid and stepped on a bee. I cried like a little girl but he was there to comfort me and carry me home. God will now carry him home. You are all in my family's thoughts and prayers.

“ Having just seen you at rest a flood of memories came back to me about our childhood together. All those wiffle ball & release games we played. The treks through the woods to shoot our BB guns or to go to the ballfield & pickup a game. Our tank graveyard where we would build models only to destroy them with our pellet guns. The Island football games. All those bus rides to school. You were a big part of my childhood & a person I never had an issue with. We went different ways but always had our wonder years to reflect on. It was a wonderful time to be a kid on Columbus Dr. Thanks Geed!
