“ I met Jack when he was relocating to OKC after Scrivner bought SMF. Jack achieved about every award the meat industry had to offer. He was always busy after retirement but took time to stay in touch with friends and co-workers. I enjoyed working with Jack and loved giving him a hard time about not being HR friendly. He would laugh and say that’s how it is. To say that Jack had a very unique personality would be an understatement. He always did things his way. Jack was hard charging, with an un-stoppable drive to meet goals and results. He had a heart of gold and was extremely charitable. He helped numerous employees fulfill their career goals. He will certainly be missed!

Jerry Metcalf, CEO of Scrivner, asked that I extend condolences to Lena and the family from him. Jerry said he and Jack stayed in touch and he will miss his friend Jack.

“ I first met Mr Kimberlin when he was the corporate meat director of S.M.Flickingers when it was bases in Buffalo NY. He was known for his gruff attitude and I had a few run ins with him when I was a Teamster in the warehouse. He saw to it I was promoted to a salaried position which dropped my pay by about 10k a year and it was the best move I ever made. Since 1975 I have known this man and he always looked out for me in the background. And I always called him Mr Kimberlin even after 49 years of friendship. I recently sent him some belt buckles we were given which had Super Tru Meats which he had orchestrated and Beef shootouts knowing he would appreciate them better than them sitting in my closet. I will definitely miss him and the comments he would make on my Facebook posts.

Rest in peace Mr Kimberlin
