“ Junior, as my family refer to him, and his sister Lillian are the only cousin on my fathers side of the family. As I recall, my father and Junior were close. I have many fond memories of the Lloyd family, He will always be a part of them.

“ Uncle John was one of my favorite uncles. I only had three uncles on my mother's side and they all had admirable and outstanding characteristics. John was the "cool guy" ...always dressed well, had a good sense of himself and a great sense of humor. I remember his laugh ...and the way he talked, totally Southwest Pennsylvania ..."youns commin'?"

I have a photo somewhere of him in a t-shirt helping us kids find a baseball that was hit into the weeds one summer, circa 1956. That is how I remember him. Standing tall above the weeds, we kids were so short below the weeds to even be seen in the photo, just the tops of our heads. He was a big man, strong, looked like a linebacker for the Steelers.

He was great. He found the baseball.
