“ John was a legend...my husband Don and I went on many vacations with him, his wife Edie, his stepdaughter Sheri and husband Dick...the laughter started on board every plane heading to Cancun and never stopped until we landed back again in Pittsburgh....John had a way of sarcasm that matched mine and we got along so well... John always ate the zupa {soup every day even if he didn't kno what it was...He was one of a kind and I will miss him...Fly high John...when I see the clouds soaring I will kno it was you telling jokes...love and hugs...Laverne
