“ Mrs. Moody was my first teacher at St. Sebastian School in Belle Vernon. She was kind, patient, and helped me to become the teacher educator that I am today. I will miss her, and I know that she has had a lasting impact on the many students that she taught throughout the years.

“ Our latter years have passed so quickly with not many visits. But when we were younger we sure had some great times together. Our Italian cousins from Pennsylvania were always the words we wanted to hear when we were heading on a trip there. We laughed, played, ate and sometimes teased each other mercilessly. But we all loved each other so much.

Our deepest condolences to you all.

Love and prayers.
