“ I am a cousin to Dale. but back in our growing up days, he was known as Lorraine to all of us. As he grew up and moved away he went by Dale his middle name. We always had great fun on Short St. and Broad Ave. Lived close to one another all our young lives. Dale and his first wife Katy (as we called her) stood for my husband(John) and I when we got married in 1956 A beautiful New Years wedding. He was a cousin but a child hood friend and I will always remember all the good memories. My prayers to all the Palfrey family. Shirley Gauden Melvin and family.

“ Dale was the scoutmaster of the Boy Scout troop that I was in as a youth. I give him a lot of credit for the young men in the troop keeping pretty well to the straight and narrow. I have the fondest memories of Dale. I hope he knew how much many of us looked up to him.

“ Scott/Mike, so sorry to hear about Dale. I have so many fond fun memories of him and all you Palfreys from Scouting days gone by. He was one of my Scoutmaster inspirations and part of why I am still doing it. He helped and inspired a lot of people.
