“ One of my earliest memories I have is the time you took me, along with Linda, to see my first indoor movie, Bambi, at the Coyle in Charleroi many years ago. I must have been only 5 or 6 years old. I spent countless days and hours at your house when you lived next to Gram and Grandpap (I always thought it strange when you called him Tah), and when you moved to your big house up the hill in Washington Heights. Those memories will stay with me for the rest of my life. Until we meet again, love, your nephew, Richie.
