“ My dear friend Linda..I will love and miss you terribly. My life will not be the same without you in it..always making me laugh and always there to help anyone in need. You were always a giver. The most giving and helpful person ive ever met. You were always so lind to my family and they loved you too. You were like a mom to so many but me and you had a special bond together since the first day we met. Until we meet again I love you and I will never forget you.
