“ I will always remember the times I would come down and we would play cards , wasnt too good at winning but had a great time trying ! Thanksgiving Dinner in Charleroi , I was so nervous cooking , wanted so bad to make a good impression and I am sure , I pulled it off.
 Camping and bingos ! we had many times together and I will never get those times ! You always had a way of making me laugh ...and I always appreciated that ..You would tell it like it was , I admired that so much , you were a treasure to have known and I will always remember the laughter ! Until we meet again Much Love Missy

“ I remember the first time I met Trina. She and her husband came in to my shop. I remember being impressed by the love shared between Trina and James.

Over the next year during her hair appointments, we became friends and learned a little about each other lives.

I will never forget what Trina said to me during one of her appointments when she learned about my granddaughter having cancer. She looked at me through the mirror as I cut her hair and said, "i would give up my life for your granddaughter.". I truly believed her. I told my daughter about our conversation and we both were so overwhelmed and we had tears in our eyes.

There are no words to express the feelings we felt from her unselfish words.

I'm glad Trina was my friend. I'm thankful for friendship. I will miss her and her laugh.
