“ I was traveling and then had medical procedure, so I apologize for taking so long to share my condolences to family and friends of R.J., an inspiration to so many and a very hard-working, dedicated community member. He never gave up on his dreams for North Belle Vernon. He succeeded where others would have failed. He leaves a legacy as well as projects that continue to this day. Anytime R.J. asked for help, I could never say "no," inasmuch as I knew what was in his heart and on his mind. The community needs more people of his ilk, proactive attitude and participation that make this a better place to work, live and play. God Bless. Your work ethic, your spirit and your leadership are missed but efforts and enthusiasm to make this a "Better BVA" continue in your memory. On behalf of many, thank you and rest in peace, my friend. --Joe Grata

“ RJ was always smiling and laughing! I can never forget his well intended sarcasm ❤️. I was honored to know him as my previous supervisor at a local company. I am glad we both got out of there!
Prayers to his family, find healing in all the memories, the laughter, the caring and love he showed to everyone he met.
