“ Robin you will be greatly missed. Working with you was a great time, you were always cool as a cucumber no matter the stress involved. Everyone loved you, customers, fellow employees, vendor suppliers the whole gang. You were exceptional at what you did and I always enjoyed having a chance to shoot the breeze and the jokes and humor that kept things in perspective. Sorry for the suffering you endured and your loved ones now do with your passing. Put in a good word for me in heaven I may need it. LOL!!

“ I have so many fond memories of Robin. From when she and my brother first got together as teenagers, to being in each other's bridal parties. Fun family get togethers and good times at the firehall and the Moose. From the best gift to our family, the birth of my niece Meg, to us becoming co-workers. From the end of our first marriages, when we were there for each other and grew even closer. Many weekends going out together and following Doug's band. Then she married Bill and brought William into the family. How proud she was at the births of each of her precious grandchildren, whom she adores. Then came the fight of her life, which she bravely fought, but God had other plans for her. Robin, one of the sweetest, most generous people in my life. Always willing to do anything for anyone. A light has gone out and my heart aches for all who love her. ❤️🙏
