*Sandy and I were such good friends when we all lived in Twilight. She taught me how to make spaghetti sauce and every time I make it I think of her. I want to send my love to all of her kids. God Bless all of you .

“ We will always have good memories of Sandra. She was an extraordinary person. She always helped organize our family gathering and made some of the best food for it, including the blackberry cobbler and ham barbecue. Our sincere condolences to Ed, and all of her family and friends.
