“ When Uncle Chuck married Aunt Susie and moved across the state to New Eagle, we all thought he was nuts. Turns out he was nuts for Susanne. And once we met her, we knew why. There is just a light and laughter and happiness to her. It is no wonder he fell in love with her over the phone. You will be missed Aunt Susie. I'm so glad Chuck brought you into our lives. Your light and laughter will always remain in our hearts. We'll all keep an eye on Michael for you. But you will always be that voice in his head.

“ Susanne was a very special part of my life and was truly like a second mother to me. I couldn't have asked for a better grandmother for Maksim. She was loved and will be missed by not only us, but by so many.

As the days and years pass, and you see Maksim out and about, please share with him any fond memories you may have of Susanne. One of her biggest fears was that he won't remember her, because of his tender young age. You can all help us keep her alive in his mind.
