“ Deepest sympathy and prayers to your family at this sad time. The last time I saw Teddy he told me how well he was doing and how he had lost so much weight. He said he was feeling good. He told me about his children and his eyes sparkled when he spoke of them with pride. We watched Teddy grow up and we are sad that God called him home so early. God will give you comfort, just lean on Him. May you find comfort in the happy memories that you share. Melvin and Nancy Sechrist
