Tim became a supervisor with Lilja Corp., and after 50 years in the trade, he retired in 2016. He also loved going to car shows, driving his 1966 GTO, and working on old cars, most recently on his 1951 Ford. Tim loved traveling, gardening, spending time with his family, seeing old friends, and going to his class reunions. He was a U.S. Army Reserves Veteran. Tim is survived by his wife with whom he shared 52 years of marriage, Janice Angelocci Summers; a daughter, Lisa Rocca of Stockdale; a son and daughter in-law, Jason and Sandra Summers of Charleroi; a brother, Chuck Summers of New Mexico; three grandchildren, Zachary Summers, Nicholas Summers, and Lily Rocca; and two step grandchildren, Sammy Rocca and Malayna Rocca.
