“ Bill was the one of the best beginnings to each morning for my daughter and I at Rostraver Elementary. We always enjoyed complaining about the weather together or we talked about fishing and family. If my daughter was sick and I had to pick her up, he would report to me how she looked fine and then looked sick. After knowing him a little over a year, he became a cherished person to us. I knew my daughter was always in good hands with him keeping watch there. He spoke passionately of his love for fishing with his wife and grandson. I am truly sorry for your family's loss. Bill was very special to all of us and irreplaceable. May you all be comforted by his loving memory and may he Rest In Peace.
