“ *I met Bill during the summer of 1968. He was one of the guys from Fayette City who came up and helped clean the Old Cemetery on the border between Brownstown and Fayette City (Mt Auburn). From the first moment I met Bill, he was always good to me and treated me fair and square. I saw him last at the Wal-Mart in Belle Vernon a few years ago. He was still as good and as nice to me as ever. Thank You, Bill for your goodness to me. I know God is blessing you. May He always bless your family until you guys meet again in heaven.
