“ I have too many memories to pick just one. He was truly a nice man. It always amazed me that he could talk sports at the drop of the hat whether it was the 2020 pirates, the 2959 Hornets Hockey, the 1959 Pirates, 1965 Steelers, etc. and new the players. I do remember my 1st Pirates game was with Bill and my Dad. In 1959. My Mom always liver her Lil' Brother!!!

I have to smile when I think of working with Bill. We nicknamed him king of trivia, so it doesn't surprise me that he knew so much about sports.
Sympathy and love to Marilyn.
