“ Sally and Family,

Very sad to hear of Bill's passing. We got to know his family when we went to school with Maureen. Sally, you took such beautiful photos at Michael and Bethany's wedding year ago, May God send you and your family comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ He was a caring person and Teacher. Me and William David were friends sense they moved to Southside Drive. And he was willing to give me rides from Football Practice until David graduated. Then he took my Senior pictures for me. Sorry to here of Bill's passing.

“ *Sally, David and family,
We are so sorry to hear of Bill's passing! We have so many fond memories of the good times we had while you were in Oneonta. I vividly recall Bill's love of basketball, photography, anything Pittsburgh, a funny story, and of course his family.*

And Bill - Please give my regards to John Wooden.

*Dear Sally,
I am stunned and very saddened to learn today of your loss of dear Bill. He was an easy teacher to work with and I loved my hours with him. He took beautiful pictures of my daughter Kristin's graduation and never charged me for them. Bill was funny, genuine and such a good friend!*
